Eaglet News

What a busy and exciting week it's been in Early Years! It was wonderful to welcome our new Nursery pupils in their smart new uniforms, who hit the ground running with lots of smiles, talk, and play. We spent lots of time exploring our indoor and outdoor classrooms, and made our first steps towards learning new routines, including the all-important TIDY UP TIME! Ms Peters and Mrs Gutierrez were very grateful to the Reception children - resident experts by now - who set a wonderful example and have been very inquisitive and sensitive towards their new friends. We look forward to getting to know each other better over the coming weeks!

Eaglet fund

A reminder that each child's Eaglet fund for this half term is due. The amount is £4, which can be passed on to your child's class teacher. Thank you to those who have already paid.

PTFA Coffee Morning, Monday 23rd 9am

Open to existing and new parents, with a particular invitation to our new EYFS parents. Please come along and have a coffee and chat. Find out what we do and share your ideas on how we can support the school.

Nursery Drop Offs and Collection

From next week, please encourage your child to enter the building alone. It really helps your child to have a very clear point from which to say their goodbyes. Please be aware that dismissals can be a very busy time and our first priority must always be the safety of the children. If you need to speak to a teacher, kindly wait until all children have been dismissed.

Juice

Please do not send your child in to school with juice in their water bottles. Plain water ONLY is permitted. We simply cannot allow the children to drink it and so it causes unnecessary distress for the children. Water bottles are optional, as milk and water is available to children throughout the day.

Macmillan Coffee Morning

We warmly invite you to attend our annual coffee morning to raise money for the Macmillan Cancer Charity. Stop by for a cake and coffee to support this wonderful cause. Donations of cakes and biscuits gratefully received!
